SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 15 CONSCRIPTION ANOTHER SUGGES.

The Richmond Luyairer urges an increase of the much nery to execute the conscript act, and calls the States to the aid of the Confederate Government. The faithful enforcement the law is not only just to the peple, but of the first importance to the efficiency of the army. out it has been unstained by public sentiment while a musnimity which nothing but its importance to the cause could have secured; but not telinstanding this pepolar support, says the Ensiliner, "and every exertion which the machinery of the law allows to the Gevernment, this law has set been fully executed, and without additional zenchinery cannot be executed as it ought to be and as the necomity of the country absolutely demonds.
